INTRODUCTION

Botswana is a country the size of Texas, but with only 1.7 million people. Most of these people live in an around the three main cities, and in the southern part of the country. In the north and west of the country lie vast and sparsely populated areas renowned for their prolific wildlife. For centuries hunters and travelers have explored this area. Now is your opportunity to experience this unique country, from the pristine waterways of the Okavango Delta to the harsh hinterland of the northern Chobe.

OUR HUNTING AREAS

Our CH8 concession, more commonly known as Pandamatenga is in the east of the country just south of our other areas. Pandamatenga is situated between the famous Chobe National Park and the equally famous Hwange National Park in Zimbabwe. This is a direct and natural corridor between the two parks, and a natural highway for the elephants. You could not pick a more strategic elephant hunting destination anywhere in the world. Pandamatenga is home to large numbers of elephant and has been managed extensively to give clients the best opportunity in Africa for taking a truly magnificent trophy tusker. It consistently produces among the highest ivory averages in all of southern Africa. Other species common to the area include buffalo, eland and leopard.
